Y Numb. 577

The Daily Courant.

Monday, February 21. 1704

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 26.

Genoa, February 2.

THE Duke of Savoy has ſent a Letter of Thanks to this Republick, for procuring by their Solicitations the Liberty of the 7 Piemontois Officers that were ſeiz'd and made Priſoners in ſight of this City by the Duke of Turſis. The Emperor's Miniſter has receiv'd from ſeveral Places Remittances for 1 Million 600000 Livres, and he buys up Piſtoles to tranſmit them to the Duke of Savoy and the Imperial Army. And laſt Week went from hence 18 Mules loaded with Money remitted from Spain for the Milaneze. A great Number of Germans and Piemontois are employ'd in fortifying Spigno, to ſhut up the Paſſage to Final on that ſide. The Malecontents of Languedoc increaſe, and give 20 Sols a day to ſuch Soldiers who deſert from the King's Troops to joyn them, as 150 from the Galleys lately did.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Feb. 25.

Milan, Feb. 2. Some Advices from Spain tell us, that the Government of this Dutchy is given to Don Antonio de Velaſco, and that the Marqueſs de Calmenciro is made Major General of the Forces of this State. The ſame Letters add, that the Duke de St. Pierre is made Viceroy of Sicily.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 26.

Milan, Feb. 5. The Imperialiſts have demanded Contributions of all the Mantuan Montferrat, to the Sum of 90000 Piſtoles, one third of which they have already receiv'd. The Duke of Mantua is at Caſal, where he takes the Diverſion of Plays and Operas. The Duke of Vendome has ſignified to him, that he would do well to retire to ſome other Place where he might be leſs expos'd to Danger; to which 'tis ſaid he has return'd Anſwer, that he has been forc'd to remove from one Place to another ſo often that he is grown weary of it. [Later Advices from Baſil ſay, he is gone from Caſal.] The Imperialiſts have likewiſe demanded Contributions of Vigevano and its Dependancies. A Courier has brought News that the Germans have ſurpriz'd ſome of the French near Cozzo, between the Lomelline and the Montferrat; that they have kill'd and wounded a conſiderable Number, taken divers Priſoners, and purſued the reſt to Vigevano. Commiſſaries are gone from hence to Alexandria, to prepare Quarters for the Troops that are coming from France, by the way of Final and Genoa. Monſieur de St. Fremont is return'd from Modena, after having oblig'd the Imperialiſts to retire out of Buonporto and Baſtiglia, in doing which he took 100 of them Priſoners. They write from Bologna, that the 30th Ult. the Duke of Modena ſet out from that City, with a great Train, and took his way towards Loretto; leaving his Dutcheſs and Children behind him.

Lorraine, Feb. 18. Letters from Verſailles tell us, a Captain of the Regiment of Dragoons of Eſtrades, was arriv'd there from Italy, and had brought the King an Account of what Monſieur de St. Fremont has perform'd againſt the Imperialiſts in the Modeneze. According to the Report of this Captain, the Imperialiſts left on the Secchia are but 5000 ſtrong, 2500 of which are in Mirandola, 1000 in Rovero, and 1500 in Oſtiglia; whereas the French are at preſent double the Number in thoſe Parts. They had a Report at Verſailles that Quiſtello is taken from the Imperialiſts, but wait the next Letters from Italy to be ſatisfied of the Truth of it. Monſieur de Vauvray, Intendant of Thoulon, is gone Poſt thither, to give neceſſary Orders for imbarking the Recruits for the Army in Italy, which are to land at Final. They write from Lyons, that the French Troops in Savoy are but 6000 Men ſtrong, part of which are Militia, and half this Number are employ'd in the Blockade of Monmeillan. And from Nimes there are Letters of the 6th inſtant which ſay, the Governour had that day receiv'd Advice, that 500 of the Camiſars were within a League and an half of that Place; and had thereupon ſent out a ſtrong Detachment of his Garriſon, of the Succeſs of which they are in Expectation. Theſe Letters add, that Deſolation is ſpread wide over that Country; and that the Marſhal de Montrevel was expected there at Nimes 7th.

Frankfort, Feb. 20. They write from Switzerland, that 500 French having laid a Deſign to ſurprize Major Stoeka in the Village of Ohlendorf, he being advertis'd of it, receiv'd them ſo vigorouſly, that they were forc'd to retire, leaving behind them 30 Men dead on the Spot.

Cologne, Feb. 22. They write from Liege that the Count de Noyelles had receiv'd Advice from Bruſſels, that by order of the Court of Madrid, the King of Pruſſia's Arms which were placed over the Gate of the Palace of the late King William, in that City, are taken down; becauſe his Pruſſian Majeſty is in the Grand Alliance.

Baſil, Feb. 16. What the King's Troops have lately acted in the Sevennes, cannot be thought on without Horrour. They have burnt and utterly laid waſte 50 Pariſhes, which conſiſted moſtly of ſmall Villages. The Inhabitants being order'd to repair to certain Places appointed them, they went thither and took all their Goods with them, which were ſeiz'd and confiſcated. Some of them that were found ſtraggling out of the Bounds ſet them, to ſeek Bread, were knock'd on the Head. The laſt Letters tell us particularly, that at St. Andrew de Valborgne, in which is a Garriſon of 5 or 600 Men, an Order was publiſh'd in the King's Name forbidding all Perſons to paſs certain Limits that were mark'd out, which ſeveral poor People doing and returning again, were all ſhot dead and thrown into the River: None but Children under 7 Years of Age were ſpar'd, the reſt were kill'd without Form of Proceſs and without Mercy. As for the Camiſars 'tis extream difficult to come by any certain Intelligence concerning them. But in general it appears very plainly, that thoſe commanded by Cavalier will attempt to joyn thoſe under Roland in the Vivarez, in order to march all together into Dauphiney to joyn the Vaudois. And the French Troops are moſt of them in motion to prevent this Deſign.
